BOTH SIDES OF 7TH AT K ST. 'THE DEPENDABLE STORE'

Big Sale of Wool Rugs From Alex. Smith & Sons Auction Sale

From the Star of April 7th
Special Dispatch to The Star.

New York, April 7.—The setting of price standards for the summer and fall seasons goes on apace. Just now it is carpets, and, as was the case a fortnight ago with hosiery, retailers themselves are having a voice in the matter by active participation in the auction at which the Alexander Smith & Sons Carpet Company is disposing of a stock that is large enough and comprehensive enough to be an actual factor in the trade.

The first day of the sale saw prices shaded from one-quarter to one-third from the spring list issued last November. Yesterday saw the average reduction increased to 35 per cent. Other firms, among them W. and J. Sloane and Stephen Sanford & Sons, have confidently put out their new fall lists with average reductions of 20 and 25 per cent.

Advance Shipments Rushed by Express From the New York Auction Rooms and on Sale Tomorrow at

35% to 40% Under Recent Prices

The most important sale of Rugs known in years was held in New York last week, when the Alexander Smith & Sons Carpet Co. disposed of millions of dollars worth of floor coverings at public auction. We secured many choice lots of Smith Rugs at prices which enable us to sell them at reductions of 35% and more from recent prices.

Express shipments from the Smith Auction Sale have arrived and go on sale tomorrow, together with our own stock of Smith rugs at the auction prices. Every wanted coloring can be obtained, in floral, oriental, medallion and small conventional designs; sizes from 6x9 ft. to 9x12 ft.
